The School Story written by Andrew Clements is a level R book. It is a great story for upper elementary students and provides great inspirations for creative writers. Our comprehension packet includes vocabulary, prediction boxes, comprehension questions for each chapter, creative writing, critical thinking, labeling story elements, art, and also a crossword puzzle and wordsearch as fun additions. A key is available for this packet.
The School Story

Author: Andrew Clements

Level: R

Name:____________________
Read Back Cover

Prediction: Do you think that Natalie’s story will get published? Why or why not?

Chapter 1

New Words: (1) suspense, torture, (2) bodega

Vocabulary:
Below write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

slowly (1)-

shouting (3)-

commuting (5)-

novelist (7)-

1. What does Natalie mean on p. 4 when she says “I know how the end feels, but not exactly what happens”?

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

2. How did Natalie get the idea for her story?

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

3. Why did Natalie think she might be able to write a school story?

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________
4. If you were going to write a school story, what do you think would be a good idea for a story that would get readers excited about reading your book?

____________________________________________________________________

Be an author!

Begin writing your own story. Write one paragraph using the idea above.

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Chapter 2  A Portrait of the Author as a Young Girl

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

calmly (9)-

evenly (9)- thoughtfully (9)- naturally (10)-

Questions:

1. What made Natalie first become interested in reading?

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

2. What happened that changed what happened during Natalie’s bedtime?
Prediction:

What do you think the next step for Natalie getting her book published will be?

Chapter 3 Mystery Man

New Words:  manuscript(13), sarcasm(15), “air of superiority” (16)

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its suffix or prefix.

curly (14)-
publishing (14)-

Prediction:

Who do you think Ted Geisel might be?

Chapter 4  City Kid
New Words: transportation (19), “street smarts” (19), radar (20)

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

reception (23)-
receptionist (23)-
security (23)-
brownish (24)-
reference (25)-

1. How is how Natalie goes to school different from how you go to school?

2. How was making children’s books different from how Natalie thought it would be?

3. Who is the main character in the story?

4. List 5 things you know about Natalie.
   a.
   b.
   c.
   d.
   e.

5. List 3 things you know about Zoe.
   a.
   b.
   c.

6. List three examples of “street smarts”.

Chapter 5 The Plot Thickens

New Words: pseudonym

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of any prefix or suffix.

pictures (28)-

Questions:

1. Who is Theodore Geisel?

2. What is Zoe’s idea?

3. Why doesn’t Natalie like the idea?

4. On page 28 the author says Zoe is building her case. What does he mean by this?
5. What would your pseudonym be?______________________________

Prediction:
Do you think Zoe’s idea will work? Why or why not?

Chapter 6 Reality Attack

New Words: editor (30), cubicle, morgue(31), cantankerous (33)

Vocabulary:
Fill in the blanks with the new words from chapter six.

1. The __________ read over the book deciding what might need to be taken out.
2. I sit at my desk in my __________ at work.
3. She disliked her __________ boss.
4. They found a dead body and brought it to the __________.

Chapter 7 Business Lesson

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of it’s prefix or suffix.

unread (35)-
imagining (35)-
inside (35)-
unsolicited (37)-
submissions (37)-
everually (37)-
editorial (37)-
Questions:

1. What did Natalie find out about publishing companies?

   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

2. How does Natalie feel about the way things are done at publishing companies?

   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

3. Why do you think Natalie wrote about a father?

   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________
   ________________________________________________________________

Prediction:
How do you think Natalie will get her story read by publishers?

Chapter 8 A Portrait of the Bulldog as a Young Girl

New Word: brownstone

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and any suffix or prefix it may have.

argument (43)-

comfortable (47)-
carefully (48)-
imagination (52)-
creative (53)-

Questions:

1. Natalie is a writer. Zoe is a ________________.

2. What was Zoe looking for at her dad’s office? Why was she looking for that?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

4. Zoe looks for the table of contents. Why would she go to this part of the magazine first?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Matching

1._____ a made up story
2._____ these types of books usually have a puzzling plot
3._____ books written for children
4._____ a story written about someone’s life
5._____ story written based on actual events in the past
6._____ story written about yourself
7._____ books about an unusual or exciting experience
8._____ a true story
   a. historical fiction
   b. fiction
   c. children’s books
   d. autobiography
Multiple Choice
1. What steps did Zoe’s dad say they needed to take to get a story published?
   a. get an agent, map out a strategy, target best publishers
   b. send story to publishers, map out a strategy, get an agent

Onomatopoeia - words that imitate sounds
Find and copy the sentence on p. 51 that uses onomatopoeia on the lines below. Underline the word that imitates a sound.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________

Chapter 9 The Agent

Vocabulary
Write the root word and it’s meaning as well as the meaning of it’s prefix or suffix.

cheerfulness (56)-
cautious (57) –
disbelief (58)-
disappointment (58)- completely (58)-

Questions:
1. Why does Natalie keep changing her mind?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________

2. Why doesn’t Zoe give up?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
3. What is Zoe’s idea for an agent for Natalie?

4. What does the author mean on p. 58 when he says Natalie’s face was a dictionary of emotions?

Prediction
Do you think Zoe will make a good agent? Why or why not?

Chapter 10 The Chosen Grown-Up

New Words: persuasive editorial (65)

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and its meaning along with the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

programmable (64)-
magically (65)-
unruly (65)-

Questions:
1. Who is Ms. Clayton?

Chapter 11 Welcome to the Club

Prediction:
Do you think Ms. Clayton will help Zoe and Natalie get the story published?
New Words: barrier (70), moat (70)

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and its meaning along with the meaning of its suffix or prefix.
friendship (70)-
acceptable (76)-
unlocked (73)-

Questions:
1. What is the title of Natalie's book?

2. What is Zoe's pseudonym?

3. How did Ms. Clayton describe Natalie's book?

4. Do you think it is a good idea for Zoe and Natalie to use pseudonyms? Why or why not?

Prediction
Do you think that publisher's will like The Cheater by Cassandra Day? Why or why not?
Chapter 12 In or Out

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and its meaning along with the meaning of it’s suffix or prefix.

insane (80)-
unmoved (86)-
research (89)-

Questions:
1. Why does Zoe give Ms. Clayton $500.00?

Chapter 13 Open for Business

Questions:
1. How did Zee Zee Reisman get Natalie's Mom to read the manuscript without asking her to?

2. Write the sentence on p. 98 which uses onomatopoeia.

Prediction:
How do you think Hannah Nelson, Natalie's Mom/Editor, will react to the story?

Chapter 14 – Judgment Day

Questions
1. What word would you use to describe how Natalie was feeling when she was waiting for her mom to read the story?

_____________________

2. Do you think it was fair how Natalie got her book to the publishers? Why or why not?

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

3. On p. 111 Natalie says, “That’s the whole idea of a good book, right. It’s supposed to hit you where you live.” What does she mean by this?

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Chapter 15 A New Island

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and its prefix or suffix.

breathless (112)-

wonderful (112)-

renamed (113)-

dangerous (119)-

Metaphor

In chapter 15, it talks about how finding an author is like finding an island out in the middle of an ocean. What does this mean?

______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

Chapter 16 Poker Anyone

Vocabulary
Write the meaning of the root word and its suffix or prefix.
Questions
1. Why do you think Leitha wants to be the editor?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
2. What do poker and what Zoe needs to do have in common?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
3. On the lines below, please write the sentence on p. 129 which consists of a metaphor.
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
4. Find on p. 123 an example of onomatopoeia and write it on the line below.
 ____________________

Prediction
Do you think Zee Zee will get Leitha to let Hannah, Natalie’s Mom, edit the book?

Chapter 17- High Stakes Aces Wild
Questions:
1. Why did Leitha finally agree to let Hannah edit the book?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
2. Write the example of onomatopoeia on p. 140 on the line below.
 ____________________
Chapter 18- The Long Arm of the Law

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and it’s suffix or prefix.

midsentence (149)-

underage (152)-

Questions:

1. How does Zoe’s dad feel about the girls getting Natalie’s book published?

____________________________________________

Prediction
When do you think Hannah will tell her mom it was her who wrote the book?

Chapter 10 is titled The Red Pencil Blues, what do you think chapter 10 will be about?

Chapter 10- The Red Pencil Blues

Vocabulary

reviewer (166)-

methodical (167)-

narrator (168)-

Questions:

1. Why do you think it is important to Cassandra to keep her identity a secret?
2. What have Natalie’s and her editor/mom learned by working together?

3. What sentence on p. 170 tells us we are getting near the end of the editing process?

4. On p. 173 Ms. Clayton says, “I’m going to treasure it my whole life.” What does this sentence tell us about Ms. Clayton and her feelings about this experience.

Chapter 20 – Family and Friends

My favorite part of this book was

Would you recommend this book to other readers?

What did you learn from reading this book?

Please circle a score for this book below.
Name:________________

1. What gave Natalie the idea to write a “school story” in the first place?
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________

2. List four characters in the story.
a._______________
b._______________
c._______________
d._______________

3. Zoe’s job is a
a. writer
b. reader
c. agent
d. publisher

4. If you could have any of the jobs in this story, which one would you want?
__________________________

5. What is the title of Natalie’s book?
a. The Writer
b. The Cheater
c. The Reader
d. The Agent

6. What was the turning point in the book?
School Story

RRWRITINGASNTOE
REYCANTATKEOPYD
OHCUPLAECESIEUI
KSSERTCARAHCRTMT
MINZPCDGYTBASYO
YSOHTNDAUNUNR
FBAEVIIEYESIAOI
CURITEGOEGYGSDH
PPVTRALBNWZAIUQ
QLEPVOCICIRMVEG
DSOKTJTCSAEISER
NOITIFICISTCTGPV
DRETRWKDQVULRM
NYROTSREFERENCE
NXTJITIKKLCXSI

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>AGENT</th>
<th>CHARACTERS</th>
<th>EDITOR</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>EDITORIAL</td>
<td>FICTION</td>
<td>IMAGINATION</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NOVELIST</td>
<td>PERSUASIVE</td>
<td>PLOT</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PSEUDONYM</td>
<td>PUBLISHER</td>
<td>RECEPTIONIST</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>REFERENCE</td>
<td>SETTING</td>
<td>STORY</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TEACHER</td>
<td>WRITER</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| __ __ __ __ __ __ __   __   __ __ __ __   __ __ __ __   __ __ __ __   __ __ |
School Story

Across
1. NO LIMIT
3. FULL OF CARE
4. MADE UP STORY
6. STORY WRITTEN ABOUT A PERSON
7. PERSON WHO FIXES A STORY
8. PRINT AND DISTRIBUTE BOOKS

Down
2. PERSON WHO WRITES A STORY
5. WORDS THAT REPRESENT SOUNDS

Word Bank: unlimited, careful, novelist, biography, editor, publish, fiction, onomatopoeia
KEY

Prediction: Do you think that Natalie’s story will get published? Why or why not?
Answers vary.

Chapter 1

New Words:
(1) suspense- state of uncertainty, unsure of what will happen
torture- inflict severe pain
(2) bodega- a small store, sometimes right off the street

Vocabulary:

Below write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of it’s prefix or suffix.

slowly (1)- not fast
ly- adverb

shouting (3)- speak loudly
ing- present tense, happening now

commuting (5)- travel from one place to another
ing- happening now

novelist (7)- book,
ist- one that performs the action of or produces. In this case the person who writes a book.

1. What does Natalie mean on p. 4 when she says “I know how the end feels, but not exactly what happens”?
She knows she wants it to be a happy or sad ending but she doesn’t know the exact actions she is going to write to get there.

2. How did Natalie get the idea for her story?
Natalie got the idea for her story because her mom works at a publishing company and her mom said they were looking for more “school stories”.

3. Why did Natalie think she might be able to write a school story?
Natalie thought she might be able to write a school story because she is in school and knows what goes on there.

4. If you were going to write a school story, what do you think would be a good idea for a story that would get readers excited about reading your book?
Answers vary.

Be an author!

Begin writing your own story. Write one paragraph using the idea above.
Answers vary.
Chapter 2  A Portrait of the Author as a Young Girl

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its prefix or suffix.
calmly  (9)- calm- quiet or without excitement.  ly- adverb (describes a verb) evenly  (9)- even- flat not rough.  ly-adverb thoughtfully  (9)- thought- what you think  ful- full of   ly-adverb naturally  (10)- natural- produced by nature, not altered  ly-adverb

Questions:
What made Natalie first become interested in reading?
Her parents read to her before bedtime when she was younger.

What happened that changed what happened during Natalie’s bedtime?
Natalie’s father died.

Prediction:
What do you think the next step for Natalie getting her book published will be?
Answers vary.

Chapter 3 Mystery Man

New Words:  manuscript(13)- rough draft of a story sarcasm(15)- say something obvious
“air of superiority” (16) – feeling like you are better than others

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its suffix or prefix.
curly  (14)- curl- not straight  ly-adverb publishing  (14)- publish- to prepare or bring to the public   ing- happening now

Prediction:
Who do you think Ted Geisel might be?

Answers vary.

Chapter 4  City Kid

New Words:  transportation (19)- way to get from one place to another

"street smarts" (19)- common sense

radar (20)- look out and around for something

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

reception (23)- receive-to take or acquire something given ist- act of

receptionist (23)- see above

ist- person who does this action

security (23)- secure- safe feeling ity- state of

brownish (24)- brown- color

ish- being reference (25)- refer- look back to

ence- state of or condition

How is how Natalie goes to school different from how you go to school?

Natalie goes through the city by herself. She often has to ride a city bus.

How was making children’s books different from how Natalie thought it would be?

It is not as fun. It is mostly people just sitting at desks and not much talking.

Who is the main character in the story? Natalie

List 5 things you know about Natalie.
Likes to read and write.
Mom is a publisher.
Dad was in an accident and died.
Has a friend named Zoe.
Started writing a book.
Goes to school.
Lives in New York.
Travels alone.

List 3 things you know about Zoe.
She is a talker, friends with Natalie, Dad is a lawyer.

List three examples of “street smarts”.
If a person bothers you, yell and start running.
Don’t get on an empty bus.
Sit in the front of a bus by the driver.
Never get into a car or van with strangers.
Call 911.
If you get grabbed, do whatever you can to get away.
Never go into a strange building.

Chapter 5 The Plot Thickens

New Words: pseudonym- phony name

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of any prefix or suffix.

pictures (28)- picture- photo s- more than one

Questions:

Who is Theodore Geisel?
Theodore Geisel is Dr. Suess.

What is Zoe’s idea?
Zoe’s idea is that Natalie use a pseudonym.

Why doesn’t Natalie like the idea?
Natalie doesn’t like the idea because she feels like it is lying.

On page 28 the author says Zoe is building her case. What does he mean by this?
Zoe is building a case by listing many reasons that support her idea.

What would your pseudonym be? Answers vary

Prediction:
Do you think Zoe’s idea will work? Why or why not?
Answers vary.

Chapter 6 Reality Attack

New Words: editor (30)- person who fixes mistakes in a book and suggests ideas to make it better Cubicle- boxlike area in offices where people work morgue(31)- place where dead bodies are stored cantankerous (33)- not likeable
Vocabulary:
Fill in the blanks with the new words from chapter six.

1. The editor read over the book deciding what might need to be taken out.
2. I sit at my desk in my cubicle at work.
3. She disliked her cantankerous boss.
4. They found a dead body and brought it to the morgue.

Chapter 7 Business Lesson

Vocabulary:

Write the meaning of the root word and the meaning of it’s prefix or suffix.

- unread (35)- read- to examine and understand words  un- not
  - imagining (35)- imagine- picture or pretend  ing- happening now
  - inside (35)- in- into  side- a part of something
  - unsolicited (37)- solicit- to try to persuade  un- not  ed-past tense
  - submissions (37)- submit- to offer or give  ion- action or process of
  - eventually (37)- event- happening  ly- adverb
  - editorial (37)- editor- person who fixes a book  ial- of or relating to
  - work that is the opinion of the editor or publishers
  - rejection (38)- reject- to refuse to accept  ion- act of
  - originality (39)- original- your own, first preceding others  ity- state of being
  - seriously (40)- serious- earnest in importance  ly-adverb

Questions:

What did Natalie find out about publishing companies?

Natalie found out about a slush pile where manuscripts go when they are sent in by new authors or authors without agents. The publishers look at successful authors and author’s with agent’s books first before they look at the slush pile. How does Natalie feel about the way things are done at publishing companies? Natalie doesn’t think it is fair.
Why do you think Natalie wrote about a father?
Natalie probably wrote about a father because she had a good relationship with her father and misses him.

Prediction:
How do you think Natalie will get her story read by publishers?

Answers vary.

Chapter 8 A Portrait of the Bulldog as a Young Girl

New Word: brownstone- a house built or faced with brownish stone

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and any suffix or prefix it may have.

- argument (43)- argue- give reasons for your thinking  ment- act or process of
- comfortable (47)- comfort- at ease  able- able to be
- carefully (48)- careful- cautious  ful- full of  ly-adverb
- imagination (52)- imagine- pretend or picture in your mind  ation- action or process
- creative (53)- create- to make  ive- perform an action

Questions:

Natalie is a writer. Zoe is a talker.

What was Zoe looking for at her dad’s office? Why was she looking for that?
Zoe was looking for the magazine “Publisher’s Weekly” in her Dad’s office. She was looking for the magazine to find tips to help Natalie.

Zoe looks for the table of contents. Why would she go to this part of the magazine first? The table of contents makes its easier to find parts in books. It will tell you what page a certain item or article is on so you can go straight to that part and save time.

Matching

1. b  a made up story
2. f these types of books usually have a puzzling plot
3. c books written for children
Multiple Choice
What steps did Zoe’s dad say they needed to take to get a story published?
   a. get an agent, map out a strategy, target best publishers
   b. send story to publishers, map out a strategy, get an agent

Onomatopoeia- words that imitate sounds
Find and copy the sentence on p. 51 that uses onomatopoeia on the lines below. Underline the word that imitates a sound. So if the book’s any good, and it gets into the right hands, then BOOM! It gets published.

Chapter 9 The Agent

Vocabulary
Write the root word and its meaning as well as the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

cheerfulness (56)- cheer- lightness in spirit ful- full of ness- state or quality of being cautious (57) – caution- be careful ious- having the qualities of disbelief (58)- dis- not belief- believing something to be true disappointment (58)- dis- not appoint ment- act of being
Questions:

Why does Natalie keep changing her mind?
Natalie keeps changing her mind because she is scared and isn’t sure that this plan will work.

Why doesn’t Zoe give up?
Zoe doesn’t give up because she believes in Natalie and the story.

What is Zoe’s idea for an agent for Natalie?
Zoe’s idea is that she be Natalie’s agent.

What does the author mean on p. 58 when he says Natalie’s face was a dictionary of emotions?
The author means that Natalie’s face is showing many feelings at once.

Prediction

Do you think Zoe will make a good agent? Why or why not?

Answers vary:
Yes, she is a good talker.
No, she is just a kid.

Chapter 10 The Chosen Grown-Up

New Words: persuasive editorial (65)- a story written by an editor to try to persuade or get you to feel or believe something

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and its meaning along with the meaning of its prefix or suffix.

programmable (64)- program able- able to program magically (65)- magic- charms, spells, rituals that cause effects ally- with unruly (65)- un- not ruly- neat or orderly

Questions:
Who is Ms. Clayton?
Ms. Clayton is a teacher and Zoe and Natalie’s school who is going to help them get the book published.

Chapter 11 Welcome to the Club

Prediction:
Do you think Ms. Clayton will help Zoe and Natalie get the story published?
New Words: barrier (70), moat (70)

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and it’s meaning along with the meaning of it’s suffix or prefix.

friendship (70)- friend- someone you know and like    ship- quality or state of acceptable (76)- accept- understand    able- capable of unlocked (73)- un- not    lock- a device to keep something closed    ed- past tense

Questions:
1. What is the title of Natalie’s book?
The Cheater
2. What is Zoe’s pseudonym?
Zee Zee Reisman
3. How did Ms. Clayton describe Natalie’s book?
Ms. Clayton described Natalie’s book as intense and funny.
4. Do you think it is a good idea for Zoe and Natalie to use pseudonyms?
Why or why not?
Answers vary.

Prediction
Do you think that publisher’s will like The Cheater by Cassandra Day? Why or why not?
Answers vary.

Chapter 12 In or Out

Vocabulary:
Write the root word and its meaning along with the meaning of it’s suffix or prefix.

insane (80)- in- to have    sane- sound mind unmoved (86)- un- not    move- to change or go from one place to another    ed- past tense research (89)- re- again    search- look for
Questions:
Why does Zoe give Ms. Clayton $500.00?
Zoe gives Ms. Clayton $500 to rent an office.

Chapter 13 Open for Business

Questions:
How did Zee Zee Reisman get Natalie’s Mom to read the manuscript without asking her to?
She left her a voicemail pretending to be an agent.

Write the sentence on p. 98 which uses onomatopoeia.
The stamp made a mechanical ca-chonk sound as he pressed it onto the front of the envelope, and then he scribbled his initials below the date.

Prediction:
How do you think Hannah Nelson, Natalie’s Mom/Editor, will react to the story?
Answers vary.

Chapter 14 – Judgment Day

Questions
What word would you use to describe how Natalie was feeling when she was waiting for her mom to read the story?

Answers vary. Anxious, nervous, scared, etc.

Do you think it was fair how Natalie got her book to the publishers? Why or why not?
Answers vary.

On p. 111 Natalie says, “That’s the whole idea of a good book, right. It’s supposed to hit you where you live.” What does she mean by this?
It means you can relate it to your own life and are very interested by it.

Chapter 15 A New Island

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and it’s prefix or suffix.

breathless (112)- breath- air coming in or out of your mouth less- not having wonderful (112)- wonder- happy feeling ful- full of renamed (113)- re- again name- label ed- past tense dangerous (119)- danger- not safe ous- state of being

Metaphor

In chapter 15, it talks about how finding an author is like finding an island out in the middle of an ocean. What does this mean? It says this to let us know that finding an author is very hard like it would be to find an island in the middle of the ocean.

Chapter 16 Poker Anyone

Vocabulary

Write the meaning of the root word and it’s suffix or prefix.

momentarily (127)- moment- very short amount of time ly- adverb

Questions

Why do you think Leitha wants to be the editor?

Leitha wants to be the editor because she thinks the book will be successful.

What do poker and what Zoe needs to do have in common?

Both poker and what Zoe needs to do consist of risk taking, bidding, accepting a big or turning it down, etc.

On the lines below, please write the sentence on p. 129 which consists of a metaphor.

…was about to get run over by a steam roller.

Find on p. 123 an example of onomatopoeia and write it on the line below.

thump

Prediction

Do you think Zee Zee will get Leitha to let Hannah, Natalie’s Mom, edit the book?

Answers vary.

No, she will want to do it herself.

Yes, she will do what the author wants.

Chapter 17- High Stakes Aces Wild

Questions:

Why did Leitha finally agree to let Hannah edit the book?

Leitha finally agreed to let Hannah edit the book because it was the only way the author, Natalie, would agree to let them publish the book.
Write the example of onomatopoeia on p. 140 on the line below.

boom

Chapter 18- The Long Arm of the Law

Vocabulary:
Write the meaning of the root word and it’s suffix or prefix.

midsentence (149)- mid- in the middle of    sentence- words put together to underage (152)- under- below   age- how old you are

Questions:
How does Zoe’s dad feel about the girls getting Natalie’s book published?
Zoe’s Dad is impressed.

Prediction
When do you think Hannah will tell her mom it was her who wrote the book?
Answers vary.

Chapter 10 is titled The Red Pencil Blues, what do you think chapter 10 will be about?
Answers vary.   Fixing the book?

Chapter 10- The Red Pencil Blues

Vocabulary

reviewer (166)- review- look over   er- person who does this action methodical (167)- method- way of doing things narrator (168)- narrate- to tell a story   or- person who does this

Questions:
Why do you think it is important to Cassandra to keep her identity a secret?
Because she wants to surprise her mom and for people to take her seriously and not read the book thinking a child wrote this.

What have Natalie and her editor/mom learned by working together?
They have learned to respect each other’s ideas and insights.

What sentence on p. 170 tells us we are getting near the end of the editing process?
The sentence “Finally, on the fourth pass, the manuscript came back in a new form.”

On p. 173 Ms. Clayton says, “I'm going to treasure it my whole life.” What does this sentence tell us about Ms. Clayton and her feelings about this experience. This sentence tells us that this experience has really meant a lot to Ms. Clayton and she will always remember it.

QUIZ
What gave Natalie the idea to write a “school story” in the first place? Her Mom works at a publishing company who was looking for more school stories.

List four characters in the story. Natalie (Cassandra Day), Zoe (Zee Zee Reisman), Ms. Clayton, Hannah, Leitha, Zoe's Dad

Zoe's job is a
e. writer
f. reader
g. agent
h. publisher

If you could have any of the jobs in this story, which one would you want?
Answers vary

What is the title of Natalie’s book?
e. The Writer
f. The Cheater
g. The Reader
h. The Agent

What was the turning point in the book? The turning point in the book was when the publishing company said they would publish Natalie’s book.

Draw your own picture of the cover of Natalie's book.