

Desert, Island, Stream

Objective: Students listening, direction

Level: Kindergarten and up

Equipment: None

Procedures:

- 1) Tell students that one end of the court is a desert, one is a stream, and the center line is an island.
- 2) Students will line up at one end of the court or area.
- 3) The leader (teacher or student) will call out either “desert”, “island”, or “stream”. The students must run to the correct line.
- 4) Any student who runs the wrong direction will sit out
- 5) Keep playing until there are less than 10 students playing, then start over.
